Speakers/Sessions

Dr. Mary Kay Clark, from Seton Home Study will be our special guest this year. Since 1982, Dr. Clark has been the Director of Seton Home Study School. She has written many articles on home schooling, and is the author of Catholic Home Schooling: A Handbook for Parents. She is the mother of seven, all of whom were educated at home. She will present "Practical Tips for Avoiding Home School Burnout for Both Parent and Child".

"Who Can Do It All? – Keeping the Commitment to Homeschool"

This is a mini-workshop presentation by two home school moms about setting priorities, creating order, and establishing stability and accountability in the home in order to fulfill their commitment to home schooling.

"Home Schooling for the Smaller and Ever-Changing Family"

Join us for a presentation on the many faces of home schooling. No matter what your family's size or circumstance, you can to apply the "Three C's" of home schooling to your family: Creativity, Courage, and Commitment.

"You Can Do It! We Can Help!"

Join us for an encouraging session about the positive, life-long benefits of home schooling. This is a great opportunity for you to meet students and parents who are in the middle of their home school journey. They will be available to answer your specific questions and to offer encouragement for your own adventure.

Jesus, Mary, & Joseph, Pray for Us!

Mission Statement

We, the members of the Roman Catholic Homeschool Association of Louisiana, in response to our vocation as parents, commit ourselves to helping those who are interested in or involved in home education. It is our mission to support the growth of a Catholic Home School community by providing service and support in the form of information, guidance, and activities. We are dedicated to observing and promoting the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church and strive to live our Faith daily.
