Colleen Mitchell is a Catholic home school mother of five boys from Abbeville, Louisiana. She contributes Catholic curriculum to <http://ebeth.typepad.com/serendipity>, as well as ideas for celebrating the liturgical year in the home at <http://catholiccuisine.blogspot.com>. Colleen will share her enthusiasm, wisdom, and practical advice for home schooling families in "The Glorious Rhythms of Home Schooling."

Dr. Anthony Rizzi is a Catholic Doctor of Physics and the Director of The Institute for Advanced Physics. He and his wife home school their four children in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Dr. Rizzi co-hosted the series The Science Before Science on EWTN and recently authored the text Physics for Realists-Mechanics. Dr. Rizzi will present "Science 'To Serve Man,' A Parable from the Twilight Zone: How a Misunderstanding of Science is Creating a Culture of Death." Home school teachers will learn that the proper presentation of science is critical for their students. Visit his website, iapweb.org, to learn more.

Rita Munn, a Catholic home school mother of ten from Manchester, Tennessee, is the author of A Family Journal: A Homeschooling Mother's Companion. She is a part of "Mom to Mom Connections" through Catholic Heritage Curricula at chcweb.com. Rita will share her fifteen years of experience by addressing the importance of our roles as Catholic parents and educators in "The Journey Continues...Praise God!"

RCHAL Mission Statement

We, the members of the Roman Catholic Homeschool Association of Louisiana, in response to our vocation as parents, commit ourselves to helping those who are interested in or involved in home education. It is our mission to support the growth of a Catholic Home School community by providing service and support in the form of information, guidance, and activities. We are dedicated to observing and promoting the teachings of the Roman Catholic Church and strive to live our Faith daily.

We love children, but we must respectfully ask that children do not attend this event.
As always, infants are welcome. Thank you for understanding!
